

COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION CELL, VIIT

On 23rd January 2020, the very first day of the event VISHWARUNI'20 started with inauguration and a warm welcome of the guests IAS Ravindra Khatale Sir and Brigadier Mr. Sunil Bodhe.

The event commenced with National Anthem and enlightning of the Saraswati lamp by guests along with Dr. R.S.Acharya sir, Dr. A.D.Kale sir, Manikzade sir, and Dane sir.

Ladies representative of CEC VIIT Miss Krutika Jagtap presented a welcome speech and a short introduction of VISHWARUNI and CEC VIIT.

The first chief guest, Ravindra Khatale Sir cleared UPSC in his first attempt itself. He himself has been a student of vishwakarma institute mechanical engineering. He commenced his career in automobile industry and had a 3.5 years of stint with John Deere Tractors.

COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION CELL, VIIT

IAS Ravindra Khatale Sir then were invited on the dais for sharing his views on Competitive Exams and strategy of the preparation required. He threw light on the exam pattern and statistical analysis of number of students appearing for the exam. He also shared his experience of interview.

He motivated aspirants to think “out of the box” and study consistently for the examination. He added that meditation could help students of this era to overcome some major distractions like social media and mobile phones.

At last sir thanked the organizing team of CEC and viswakarma institutes for inviting him as a guest.

Following are the main aspects of the speech,

1. Start thinking “Out Of The Box”
2. Consistency in Efforts.
3. Make proper use of resources.
4. Instead of mugging up concepts try to relate them with real life examples.

At last question and answer round was conducted and doubts of several aspirants were cleared by IAS Ravindra Khatale sir.

COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION CELL, VIIT

The next speaker, Brigadier Mr. Sunil Bodhe were welcomed and invited on the dias for guiding the audience on opportunities in defence sectors.

Mr. Sunil Bodhe started his lecture with addressing faculty members and the students present for Vishwaruni'20. He threw light on the opportunities for a technical graduate in armed forces and inspired the audience for choosing it as there career ahead. He presented a short and informative power point presentation on the examinations which allow one to get in armed forces and various other fields similar to it.

COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION CELL, VIIT

He also included that introspection is very important to know what individual wants to achieve in his/her life.

Following are the main aspects of the speech,

1. Personality is a bundle of qualities one carries with him/her.
2. Levels of humans sub-consciousness, consciousness and group dynamics.
3. Introspection is an important exercise one should practice.

Question and answer session was held and the audience were allowed to interact with Brigadier Mr. Sunil Bodhe for any queries.

At last A.D.Kalle Sir delivered the vote of thanks to the guests for the evening and admired them for accepting the invitation for VISHWARUNI'20.

Bansilal Ramnath Agarwal Charitable Trust's
Vishwakarma Institute of Information Technology
Sr.No. 2,3& 4, Kondhwa Bk., Pune 48

COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION CELL, VIIT

There were near about 650 students who were attending the seminar. Every one of them got an excellent overview of knowledge with patience will surely result in success. Students showed good support to that as well.

Prof. Dr. A. D. Kale
(CEC Faculty In-charge)

Anand S. Kadam
(CEC President)